Gary Gray

Gary Crawford Gray, 40, of 525 Newell St., died at his home Dec. 5, 1997.

The memorial service will be at 11 a.m. on Tuesday at the Colonial-DeWitt Funeral Home, 19 E. Birch St., with the Rev. LeRoy Selby officiating. Cremation was held at the Colonial-DeWitt Crematorium.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society or a charity of the donor's choice through the funeral home.

Mr. Gray was born on May 8, 1957, in Walla Walla to Daniel T. and Martha Crawford Gray. He attended Green Park Elementary School and Garrison Junior High School, and graduated from Walla Walla High School in 1976.

After graduation, he went to work for Tum-a-Lum Lumber Co., where he was employed until January of this year. He then moved to Redmond, Ore., returning to Walla Walla this month.

He married Julie Torrey on Aug. 7, 1976, in Walla Walla. They later were divorced.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, golfing and skiing. He was a certified U.S. ski instructor. He also loved spending time with his daughters.

Mr. Gray was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his fiancée, Kelli Zook of Portland; two daughters, Nicole and Danielle Gray, both of Walla Walla; and his mother, also of Walla Walla.

His father died in 1995.
