Wanda Fleischman

Feb. 22, 1958 - March 17, 2007

SEATTLE — Former Walla Wallan Wanda Fleischman, 49, died March 17, 2007, at Virginia Mason Hospital here following a five year battle with cancer.

Mrs. Fleischman was born Feb. 22, 1958, in Spokane to Glen and Bernice Olson Shivley. She graduated from Walla Walla High School in 1976 and received a civil engineering degree from Washington State University, Pullman, in 1980. She married Dennis Fleischman on June 17, 1979.

Mrs. Fleischman was employed by Boeing Co. of Seattle for over 25 years. She worked on many government projects and was proud of her design work on the F-22 jet.

She enjoyed gardening and her large yard looked like a park, complete with gravel walkways wandering through her flower beds, bushes and trees. She had a small greenhouse and was active with an online gardening club, going to gardening shows and taking tours of people's yards.

Mrs. Fleischman enjoyed traveling and took many trips with family and friends. Her most frequent traveling companion was her cousin, Colleen Hastings. They traveled to England for an international flower show and guided tours of many English gardens. They also traveled to Wisconsin and Minnesota to tour lighthouses. Mrs. Fleischman enjoyed Christmas trips to Hawaii and on a Mexican cruise to Puerto Vallarta. She had also traveled to Canada and Alaska.

Mrs. Fleischman is survived by her husband, a son, Max Fleischman, and a daughter, Kenzie Fleischman, all at the family home; her parents of Walla Walla; two sisters, Barbara Taylor of Walla Walla and Linda Harris of Spokane. She is also survived by aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

"Wanda was a wonderful person, she was always kind and helpful and had a quiet nature. She graduated from WSU in 1980 as an Engineer, and worked at Boeing in Renton from 1981 until her death in 2007. She was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2001, and fought bravely until the end. She left behind a wonderful husband, Dennis, and 2 children, Max and Kenzie." from <http://wahibluedevils76.com/3/memorials.htm>
